Program

Next Steps: Check your eligibility, talk to us, and apply

Eligibility

Eligible applicants will have a bachelor's degree and a

- 3.0 GPA or higher or
- 2.5 GPA and five years of related professional experience.

Before starting the program, interns must also pass the Praxis I, an academic skills assessment test. For more information about the test, please visit our Web site at www.indiana.edu/~sect2t under admissions information.

Talk to us

We can help guide you through the application process and answer any questions you have about the program. Begin by contacting Jeane Novotny at jnovotny@indiana.edu or at (812) 856-8584. We look forward to a conversation with you.

Apply

You can apply online for the ST2T program. Visit our Web site at www.indiana.edu/~sect2t for the link to the application and advice on completing the form. When you apply, you should submit a personal statement, two letters of recommendation, results from the Praxis I, a detailed resume, and official transcripts from other colleges or universities you have attended. In some cases, we may request an interview.

Program Costs

The expected cost of the program is approximately $9,000 for in-state students and $21,000 for non-resident students. This estimate includes tuition for the coursework and additional fees specific to the program, such as those associated with the field experiences and other mandatory student fees, such as the application fee, technology, health service fees and transportation fees. For cost estimates for books, supplies, and living expenses, contact the Office of the Bursar at (812) 855-2636 or <http://bursar.indiana.edu>.

Financial Aid

Financial aid is available to eligible students through the Office of Student Financial Assistance, and for information about financial aid, contact the office at (812) 855-0321, by e-mail at rsvposfa@indiana.edu, or by checking the Web site: <http://www.indiana.edu/~sfa>.

Financial aid is different for certification-only and master's degrees. Full-time status is 8 credits; part-time is 4 credits per semester.

Eligibility for financial assistance is based on completion of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) form: www.fafsa.ed.gov. Students who anticipate that they will need some form of financial aid should file the FAFSA at least 90 days before their program begins.
