EDUCATION COUNCIL AGENDA

Friday, December 4th

9:00 – 1:00 (Indianapolis Time)

Campus Center, Room 148 (Corner of West Michigan Street and University)

IUPUI Campus Maps:  http://www.iupui.edu/about/maps/

1) Selection of a Chair to the Agenda Committee

2) Approval of three South Bend Program Proposals (See Attached Program Advising Sheets)
   a. Master of Arts in Teaching - Special Education
   b. Masters of Science - K-12 Building Level Administration
   c. Bachelor of Science – Elementary and Special Education

3) Discussion re: Math/Education Issues; Collaboration/Relationships between Schools of Education and Arts and Science

4) Announcement re: new University Course Remonstrance Process

5) Implications of REPA
   a. Review of Proposed Definition of Professional Education and Pedagogy

PROPOSED DEFINITION

Professional education and pedagogy means a curriculum that is based on the art or science of teaching, including, but not limited to, practice experience, and a curriculum based on scientifically-based reading instruction, differentiation of instruction and teaching methods, cultural competency, instructional technology, classroom and behavioral management, curriculum development, and the psychology of child development, including, but not limited to the development of the exceptional needs students.

   b. Impact on Common Lower Division Elementary Curriculum/Articulations