Indiana Student Affairs Association Conference

This year’s Indiana Student Affairs Association Conference, sponsored by Butler and DePauw Universities, will be held on Thursday, October 11, 2012 on the Butler campus. The deadline for registration, October 1, 2012, is quickly approaching and it only costs $55.00 for professional staff and $20 for graduate students.

Kyle Lacey will talk about the social revolution and social networking and Dr. Zebulun Davenport, IUPUI Vice Chancellor for Student Life, will speak about the tools necessary to be successful in student affairs today. There are a number of programs addressing pertinent issues; such as, Title IX, assessment, legal issues, sexual assault, technology in student affairs, spirituality, etc.

You can access the ISAA website for registration at http://www.isaaconference.org/.
