Title of Practicum: Leadership Development and Assessment Practicum

Practicum Description Summary
Delta Tau Delta Fraternity is seeking a practicum student who is interested in gaining a deeper understanding of program development and assessment. This hands-on practicum will allow students to work from beginning to end with one of the Fraternity’s signature programs, the Presidents and Advisors Retreat. The student will assist the director of leadership development with the curriculum development, logistics and on-site management of the program. In addition, the student will work with the Fraternities Program Assessment Model to create a mechanism to evaluate participant’s growth and development through our leadership development initiatives.
