Title of Practicum
New Student Orientation

Practicum Description Summary
The practicum position in Orientation will provide a hand-on experience in planning and facilitating new student orientation at a small, private, Catholic liberal-arts institution. The graduate intern will conduct research on best practices, be involved in outcome-based planning of program sessions, work with student Orientation Leaders, and develop assessment tools.

Sponsoring Office
Student Activities & Orientation, Marian University

Department/Office web site address: http://marian.edu/SOAR

If multiple students can be selected for this position, please indicate the number of practicum students the site is willing to host:
Spring 2015 Number available: 1

Please identify any requirements outside the 8 hours per week of the practicum experience the student would be expected to complete:
The first new student orientation program (SOAR) will be April 17, 2015. It is a full-day program.

Learning outcomes associated with the practicum experience in your office:
Gain an understanding of working at a small, private, faith-based, liberal arts institution.
Be able to develop tools to assess the learning and development of students at an orientation program.
Understand the process of planning and facilitating a new student orientation program.
Articulate best practices in new student orientation.
Present research and benchmarking information to key university stakeholders.

Provide a brief summary of the activities, duties, responsibilities and/or special projects associated with this position:
Full job description will be available at the practicum fair

Site Supervisor for Practicum Experience
Name Ben Braksick
E-mail bbraksick@marian.edu