Robert H. Wade Fellowship

Eligibility: This fellowship is to be awarded to a doctoral student in the Higher Education Program. The recipient shall be a deserving student who has academic abilities and is in genuine need of financial assistance. Fellowship recipients may reapply for the Fellowship; however, the reapplication will carry no special weight because of the previous award.

Award Value: $10,000

Selection Criteria Established by the Fellowship Committee:

1. Candidates must be Ed.D. or Ph.D. students in the Higher Education program.
2. Candidates may be new or continuing students.
3. Candidates must demonstrate a record of outstanding academic and professional performance in higher education.
4. Candidates must demonstrate genuine need for financial assistance.