Canisius College
Assistant/Associate Professor, College Student Personnel Administration
(Tenure Track)

Canisius College is currently seeking applications for a tenure-track assistant/associate professor in the master’s program in college student personnel administration (CSPA). This person will teach full time and will share program administration responsibilities with the CSPA director.

The Canisius College CSPA program prepares students to work as administrators in higher education, particularly in student affairs. CSPA is a full time cohort master’s program that has a theory-to-practice philosophy and is grounded in Jesuit pedagogy. All students are full time and the program takes two years to complete (36 credit hours). In addition to its rigorous CAS compliant curriculum, a unique feature of the CSPA program is that the faculty and all students attend the national convention (either ACPA or NASPA) each year as part of the academic content of the program.

Canisius College is a Catholic, Jesuit university founded in 1870 and located in Buffalo, New York.

Responsibilities:

- Teach a full time graduate course load annually (fall and spring semesters). Which courses will depend on the expertise and interest of the candidate and the needs of the CSPA program.
- Engage in scholarship and research activities consistent with the expectations for achieving tenure in the School of Education and Human Services.
- Participate in the life of the college through service on departmental and institutional committees and activities.
- Plan and attend the national conference with CSPA students.
- Advise the College Student Personnel Graduate Association.
- Work with the CSPA program director on projects and activities and participate in program administration and assessment as needed.

Requirements:

- Doctorate in higher education administration or closely related field. ABD will be considered if within six months of graduation.
- At least three to five years of student affairs administrative experience. Experience at the director level or above is preferred.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Demonstrated professional expertise and teaching proficiency.
- Demonstrated commitment to students and student learning and a desire to serve as a mentor to the students in the CSPA master’s program.
- Demonstrated commitment to scholarship and research.
• Appreciation for the Catholic Jesuit mission of Canisius College, including how this mission is implemented in the CSPA program.
• Appreciation for the theory-to-practice philosophy of the CSPA program.

Salary is competitive, and contingent on experience and qualification.

Application:

Application review will begin February 15, 2016 and will continue until the position is filled.

Electronic submission is strongly encouraged; pdf format is preferred. Please put “CSPA Faculty Search” in the subject line of any emails.
