Official Degree Name: Inquiry Methodology PhD (minor)

Official Sub-Plan Name:

Overview of degree:

Summary paragraphs of degree and general overview of requirements

The minor must have integrity in its own right and must complement the major. The minor field must demonstrate wholeness within itself and contribute to the student’s overall doctoral program. The Minor in Learning Sciences is a 12 credit hour minor designed to meet the needs of PhD students in all areas of the IU School of Education and other degrees on campus.

A minor in Inquiry Methodology engages in students’ thinking through methodological advancements and challenges relevant to their major fields of study. The minor complements one’s core inquiry hours without duplicating those. In other words, a course cannot count as both a core course and a minor course. The minor is constituted of 12 credit hours. The specific coursework for the minor is decided and approved by the minor advisor. There is no minor qualifying exam requirement for the Inquiry Methodology doctoral program.