Guidelines for Involvement of Emeritus Faculty on Program and Research Committees

An emeritus faculty member may remain on program committees and research (dissertation) committees formed prior to retirement and continue to serve as member, chair, co-chair, or director.

An emeritus faculty member may not be appointed as chair of either a program committee or a research committee. However, an emeritus faculty member who continues to be actively engaged in research and in their professional field may serve as a member of a program committee, or serve as director, co-chair, or member of a dissertation committee, with the recommendation of the chair of the committee and approval of the department chair.
