Residency requirements shall be satisfied by full-time student status for at least two consecutive semesters, one of which may be defined as an entire summer. Full-time student status is defined as physical presence on campus, and more than half-time in any other occupation is precluded.