The minimum grade in a professional education course for it to be counted toward a student’s program is a C. A grade of C- or below will require the course being taken again.