

Proposal to Form an Ad Hoc Committee

Given the high service load of faculty in the School and across the campus, significant number of policy council committees (N=15), and the fact that the Policy Council Committee structure has not been revisited in living memory, the agenda committee recommends establishing a task force to examine the committee structure, including the activities and charges of the current committees and, if appropriate, bring a proposal for revision of the committee structure to the Policy Council.