Students must be in good standing and have no more than 6 credit hours of incompletes (in their current semester) to take the qualifying exam. Any incompletes must be removed prior to nomination to candidacy.

The Ed.D. residency requirement can be satisfied by taking either two consecutive semesters of nine credits or three consecutive six-credit hour terms at the Bloomington-Indianapolis core campus. Dissertation credit hours (C799) or credit hours in Advanced Research (G901) may not be used to fulfill residency requirements.

Refer to the Graduate Bulletin checklist of doctoral program milestones and other program resources for further details.
