Dear School of Education Graduates,

Congratulations! We are exceptionally proud of your accomplishments as IU School of Education students, and we join you in celebrating this landmark event in your professional lives.

We trust that the experiences you have had and the relationships you developed here with us will stay with you as you pursue your dreams and goals. As members of our esteemed alumni community, we welcome you to a growing network of accomplished graduates who are making important contributions close to home and around the world.

I personally encourage you to take full advantage of a tremendous support group of peers and friends — your IU School of Education family.

Sincerely,

Lemuel W. Watson
Provost Professor and Dean, IU School of Education

HONORING THE GRADUATES

GUEST SPEAKER

Charlie Nelms
Chancellor Emeritus, North Carolina Central University

“Successful and sustainable teaching effectiveness is filled with soul; soul-centric teaching is the heart of true learning.”

–Dr. Charlie Nelms

GRADUATES AND THEIR WORDS OF GRATITUDE

CLOSING REMARKS

Jill D. Shedd
Assistant Dean for Teacher Education

The book, From Cotton Fields to University Leadership. All Eyes on Charlie, A Memoir, by Charlie Nelms is your special gift from Dr. Jill Shedd as the graduating class of 2020, Indiana University’s Bicentennial graduating class. As an esteemed School of Education graduate, Charlie has served in a number of teaching and leadership roles during his career, including 25 years at Indiana University. His message that quality teaching is filled with soul is the message I hope you remember and nourish throughout your career in this most important, fundamental profession.
